Daddy's Bedtime

Story—How the Elf Was Fooled

"IN the olden times in a certain town in England," said daddy one evening in beginning his bedtime story for Jack and Evelyn, "there lived an elf who was very mischievous. Indeed, some of the tricks which he played on the people were worse than mischievous, for they did considerable harm."

"So one day they held a meeting to consider what should be done about it. The elf lived in an old deserted house at the very end of the town."

"Well, at the meeting several plans for trapping the elf were spoken of, but none seemed to the people to be a good one. Finally some one said:

"Let's ask Daft Tom to catch the elf. He'll do it if any one can." Daft Tom was a queer old man who lived in the town and who was believed to be able to talk with fairies and elves and such creatures. So they sent for Daft Tom and offered him ten gold pieces if he would rid the town of the elf. "I'll try," said Tom, "but you must give me a big candle and an empty bottle with a cork for it."

"When he got the candle and the bottle and cork Daft Tom went at night to the elf's house, sat down at the table of the biggest room, lit his candle and waited."

"Just exactly at 12 o'clock he looked up, and there, sitting in front of him, was the elf. 'Hello,' said the mischievous creature. 'How did you get in?' 'Through the chimney,' said Daft Tom. 'And how did you get in yourself?'"

"I don't think that is your business," said the elf, "especially as this is my house and you have no right here."

"Well," said Tom, "it's easy enough for any one to get in through the doorway."

"But I didn't get in through the doorway," said the elf. "I came in through the keyhole."

"I don't believe it," said Tom, "for if you got in through the keyhole you could get into this bottle here." And he pointed at the bottle, from which he had drawn the cork before the elf appeared.

"Humph!" replied the elf. "That's easy. Just watch me." And with that he sprang up and jumped right into the bottle. "There! I told you so," he said, but before he could jump out again Tom pushed the cork tight into the neck of the bottle, and the elf was caught. Then he took the bottle with the bed elf in it and threw it into the river."

GREAT PENSION SYSTEM PLANNED

PITTSBURG, Dec. 3.—Plans for the greatest pension system in the world, aside from the Government's pensioning of soldiers of the Civil War, were officially announced from the headquarters of the Carnegie Relief Fund Association here today.

The United States Steel Corporation, with an $8,000,000 fund, has combined with the $4,000,000 relief fund established by Andrew Carnegie some years ago, making $12,000,000 to be known as the United States Steel and Carnegie Pension Fund.

From this there will be paid to employees of the United States Steel Corporation all over the country pensions as warranted in conditions laid down. The new monster pension fund will go into effect January 1st next.

Gary Heads Committee.

J. B. Erskine of Pittsburg, who has been connected with the Carnegie Relief Fund at Pittsburg since its inception, has been named as chairman of the new fund, while Chairman E. H. Gary of the Steel Corporation, with George W. Perkins, Robert A. Franks and R. C. Bolling, all of New York, comprise the executive committee.

The new fund will follow out the lines laid down by Carnegie in his pensioning of his employees years ago, but will be extended to all mills and properties of the corporation. There are under life pension by the Carnegie Relief Fund today 625 former employees of Carnegie, and these will be taken over at once by the new fund.

The rules of the new United States Steel and Carnegie Pension Fund which will apply to employees of the corporation establish three different lines of pensions.

The pensions will not exceed $100 per month nor be less than $12 per month.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

Don't Poison Baby.

FORTY YEARS AGO almost every mother thought her child must have paregoric or laudanum to make it sleep. Those drugs will produce sleep, and a few drops too many will produce the sleep from which there is no waking. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labeling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disgusting, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrup," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without you or your physician know of what it is composed. Castoria does not contain narcotics.

The signature of Dr. J. C. Fletcher guarantees genuine Castoria. Physicians Recommend Castoria.

"I have frequently prescribed Castoria for common ailments of children with good results."

W. A. CRANDALL, M. D.,

Buffalo, N. Y.

"I find your Castoria is very beneficial in the treatment of children's ailments."

F. DAVIS, M. D.,

Chicago, Ill.

"As the father of thirteen children I certainly know something about your great medicine and, aside from my own family experience, I have, in my years of practice, found Castoria a popular and efficient remedy in almost every home."

Wm. J. McCAHAN, M. D.,

Omaha, Neb.

"I object to what are called patent medicines, where maker alone knows what stuff is put in them, but I know the formula of your Castoria and advise its use in my practice. I judge it to be a very useful, as well as harmless family medicine."

N. B. STARR, M. D.,

Brooklyn, N. Y.

Warranted WOOLLEN GOODS

Is the kind we bought for our Winter demand. The goods as now shown in the store fill every promise of sustaining their warranted wearing durability, as well as the dictates of style.

There is a complete line of SWEATERS for Men, Women and Children, priced so everyone can own one. The line will please you as much as they did us when they arrived.

The DR. DENTON SLEEPING GARMENT for Children is the newest article we have in stock. The need of these garments for the little ones is too well known to parents to necessitate much "sales talk" here. See the line, and the garments will sell themselves. These goods are priced in this store as they are in New York, Chicago and San Francisco stores.
